Asthe GARTOONISTS SEE THE NEWS

AFFILIATED INSTITUTIONS.

MUSICAL MENTION.

the Covenant has engaged a new quartet will leave Tuesday for Atlantic City for to sing at the Sunday afternoon services sists of Mrs. Herndon, soprano; Miss Edna Scott Smith, contralto; Mr. Harry Stephens, tenor, and Mr. J. Walter Humphrey, basso and director. This Ruth Chapter, No. 1, Order of the Eastquartet will replace the one composed of ern Star. Mrs. H. Clay Browning, soprano; Mrs. Ralph Barnard, contralto; Mr. W. D. MacFarland, tenor, and Mr. Frank P. Reeside, baritone, which has rendered the music at this service for several White Sulphur Spring, W. Va., recently. years past. Mr. Harvey Murray will re- Mrs. Browning's selections included main as organist, and Mr. Reeside will continue to act as precentor for the congregational singing, having recalled his resignation. All of the members of the new quartet are engaged to sing at other tion services of the Methodist Church at churches at the morning and evening services. Miss Smith and Mr. Humphreys ston presided. A quartet consisting of having been members of the quartet of Mrs. Preston Wallace, soprano; Miss the First Congregational Church for Delia Tucker, contralto; Mr. Walmany years. Mrs. Barnard and Mr. Mac-Farland have been re-engaged as soloists in the Calvary Baptist quartet for next ter well known musically as Miss Lotta Mills, pianist, are spending the heated Baltimore, at the organ. term at Bass Rocks, Mass.

INDIANAPOLIS NEW

Mr. John B. Bovello, who has conducted the orchestra this summer at Luna Park, will leave the first week in Septem- Half Has Ever Been Told," Bischoff. ber, sailing on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie of the North German Lloyd line, for Venice. Pisa, Rome, Florence, Palermo, He will reach Washington again about stay. the middle of November.

Miss Courtney Collins, soprano, of "Prince of Parchesie" fame, was one of the stars in an entertainment given recently at Leesburg. Va., for the purpose of raising funds for the erection of a The entertainment was given in the barn at Oatlands House, the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, and was under the personal supervision of Mrs. Eustis, Mrs. Henry Fairfax, Mrs. George Carter and Mrs. David B. Tenant. Miss Collins sang selections from the "Merry Widow" and 'Mile, Modiste" and several encores; Other Washington talent prominent on the program included Mrs. Morgan Beach and Miss Leonard and Dr. Breckenridge Bayne.

Mr. Otto Torney Simon, who was seri-

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Reeside, Miss Elizabeth Harmer Reeside and her young some time in September. Miss Reeside Ocean City, N. J. will take the leading soprano role in an operetta, "A Virginia Courtship," which will be presented by the Odgen-Crane School of Opera, under Mrs. Henry Hunt his friends, the Buells and the Schardes. McKee in the early fall.

week and organized the National Organ- at the organ. ists' Association. The meeting for organization was presided over by Mr. William C. MacFarland, organist of St. Thomas' Epicopal Church. New York city, and the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Tali Esen Morgan; president, William C. MacFarland of New York city; vice president, Mrs. Bruce S. Keator of Asbury Park; secretary, A. T. Webster of Buffalo; treasurer, Henry S. Fry of Philadelphia; advisory board. Charles Heinroth of Pittsburg, S. A. Archer Gibson of New York city, Rev. Scott Kidder of Millersville, Md., Giles Farrow of Baltimore, H. H. Freeman of Washington, J. J. Miller of Norfolk, Ralph Kinder of Philadelphia, Walter Gale of New York city and

Scott Wheeler of Brooklyn. Mrs. Josephine Esputa Daly, who con-

The music committee of the Church of ducted her classes in music through July a brief period of rest and recreation previous to resuming her work in the fall.

> Mr. George F. Mellis, tenor; Mr. Hamilton Adams and Mr. Norman Esputa Daly, planist, gave a program of music at Great Falls Tuesday at the outing given by > Mrs. H. Clay Browning, soprano and choir diector of All Souls' Uniterian Church, was one of the soloists at a sacred concert given at the Greenbrier "The Holy City" and "We Shall See Him

Miss Sallie Mason, pianist, was one of the vocal soloists at the recent dedica-Forest Hill, Md., at which Bishop Cran-Mrs. Preston Wallace, soprano; Miss lace, tenor, and Mr. Freeland, bass, rendered "Seek Ye the Lord," with Miss Mason singing the obligato solo. At the offertory, Miss Mason was heard in the appropriate selection, "Open the Gates Mr. and Mrs. Williston Hough, the lat- of the Temple" (Knott), with Miss Mary Wallace of the Peabody Conservatory, > soloist last Sunday at the First Congregational Church. Her selection was "Not

Mrs. Ella Knight Ellis, violinist and voa tour of Europe. Mr. Bovello will visit calist, accompanied by her father, Capt. London, Paris, Brussels, Cologne, Ber- Henry M. Knight, is spending the month lin, Vienna, Milan, Turin, Genoa, Trieste, of August at Dunbars on the lower Potomac, St. Mary county, Md. She has returning by the Mediterranean route, assisted in several musicals during her

> Prof. J. I. Fersinger's Regimental Band and Orchestra has returned from its trip ber of concerts while away. The overtures which made the most hits were "Poet and Peasant," "William Tell," "Carmen" and "The Bridal Days." Miss Dollie Rich, cornetist, who is but twenty years of age, and is from Berlin, will do solo work for the band.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gareissen have returned to the city from their summer outthe Burlington. Mr. Gareissen has just cantatas last season by the choir of St Rochester and nearby cities.

ously ill in Venice, has been recuperating horizon, Mr. E. C. Heintz, who comes Karr officiates at the organ. after a serious surgical operation at the from New Orleans. With Mrs. Heintz Palace Hotel des Dolomites. Borch-Ca- and his family he is spending the summer dore. With Mrs. Simon he will sail for at Woodford, Va., but it is expected that ganizer and for many years director of home the first week in September on the both of them will be heard in local musi-

Miss Edith Pickering of the vocal debrother left Washington last week for partment of the University of Music and Maine, where they will remain until Dramatic Art is spending the summer at Mrs. George W. Byrd at Colonial Beach said to be an accomplished pianist.

The choir of St. Augustine's Catholic In response to the invitation sent out Church will render an elaborate program Katherine Belt and Messrs. James Howiby Mr. Tali Esen Morgan, conductor of of music next Sunday at the celebration son and Sam and Oscar Dodek, and a sexthe musical festivals held every summer of the patrional feast of the church. The at Ocean Grove, hundreds of organists choir will sing under the direction of Mr. ens, Marie Melitzer, Helen Berens and from all over the country met there last Anton Kaspar, with Miss Mamie Mullaly Helen Ranel. Mr. W. F. Fisher was in

> Mr. Ernest Lent will be the soloist again today at the morning service of the New ing her grandmother and aunt, Mrs. York Avenue Presbyterian Church. At Young and Miss Marie Grice Young. the opening of the service he will play a She is the daughter of Mrs. Wilson Sarabande by Bach and Albumblatt by Young, soprano, now of New York, but Wagner and for the offertory solo "Re- until two years ago a resident of Washligiosa," from the "Morceaux Caracteris- ington. Mr. and Mrs. Young have just tique" by Goltermann. Last Sunday, at concluded a visit to Mr. David Bispham, the same service, Mr. Lent's selection in- the famous baritone, at his home at Toko: cluded an air by Bach, "Berceuse" by Schubert, and the beautiful "Andante" from the third concerto by Goltermann. Miss Mamie Mullaly presided at the or-

Mr. Harry Hall, assistant organist of St. Aloysius and St. Paul's Catholic churches, has been spending the week past at Atlantic City.

together they expected to visit the parents and sister of Mr. Jones, who are a local reputation as a plants previous to his departure, has divided his time abroad between Vienna, studying under Leschtizky, and Berlin, where he coached with

Miss Anita Deiterich, soprano, will be Miss Deiterich will return the latter part of the week from her outing and will be heard again at the Universalist Church of Our Father, 13th and L streets north-

Mr. and Mrs. Mandum Blumenburg enertained at an informal musical at their home last Tuesday. A charming musical program was rendered by Mrs. J. Esputa-Daly, contralto; Mr. Norman Esputa-Daly, pianist, and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton

Miss Katherine Mullaly, soprano, spending a month at Front Royal, Va.

Miss Edna Sheehy, soprano, was the soloist at the recent wedding of Miss Maami Bankard Stewart and Dr. William Raymond Moulder at Grace Church, Woodside, Md. Miss Sheehy was heard to great advantage in the beautiful wedding hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," which she sang just prior to the entrance of the bridal party.

The quartet of Trinity M. E. Church, on Capitol Hill, has been re-engaged to sing next season under the direction of Mr. W. K. Cohen, organist and choir director. The quartet is composed of Miss Laura Black, soprano; Miss Carolyn Spencer Smith, contralto; Mr. H. W. Murrell, tenor, and Mr. Dan L. Wood, basso.

Mrs. Charles B. Strong and Miss Gladys Strong, the talented young pianist, left last week for Bluemont, Va., where they will remain several weeks.

Mr. John Lisle Apple, tener soloist and choir director of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, was the soloist last Sunday at the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A rooms in Atlantic City. Owing to the success which attended the presentation ing and are again in their apartment at of "The Daughter of Jairus" and other concluded a summer course of instruction Andrew's, Mr. Apple has decided to give of the same faces and voices hangs over in voice culture in Rochester, N. Y. It a cantata in place of the regular evening was in the nature of a normal course and service the first Sunday of every month. you like a pall, go into the parks of was atended by many vocal teachers of The quartet of this church consists of Washington and sit there for a day. Be Mrs. Fannie AtLee Gage, soprano; Mrs. careful to select a bench more or less

Mr. J. W. Dyer of Takoma Park, orcal affairs next season, as Mrs. Heintz :s tuting for Mr. William K. Cohen at Trinity M. E. Church on Capitol Hill.

Washington talent was well represented on the program of the musical given by recently. Piano solos were rendered by Miss Buchanan, Mr. Howard Wood and Mr. Norman Esputa-Daly is at Herndon, Miss Mildred Kolb; vocal solos by Miss Va., where he is being entertained by Mabel Sullivan, Miss Adrienne Shreve, Miss Henrietta Berens and Mr. Emory Bonini: a duet was sung by Miss Shreve and Mr. Bonini; quartet numbers by Miss tet by Misses Ethel King, Henrietta Bercharge of the program.

> Miss Hildreth Young is in the city visitneke, Conn. During her stay there, Mrs. Wilson Young was heard in recital and scored a distinct success.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts left last week for a month's visit to relatives in

Mr. Anton Kaspar is at Manchester-by- from a visit to Col. and Mrs. Heft, at nurses keep up their ceaseless chatter, the sun-warped asphalt the Sea. He will return to the city about September 1. Bridgeport, Conn. She left home again and the little sunbeams, each as bright yesterday for East Gloucester, Mass., as the great orb of day that shines down where she will be the guest of Mrs. A. upon them, accompany their guardians Mr. Frank Norris Jones, planist, arrived M. Blair, who so successfully organized with their gurgling cries of sheer happin New York last week for his first visit and launched the Rubinstein Club upon ness. ome since he went to Vienna four years its short but brilliant career last spring. Older children enter the park for a Mrs. Blair will return to Washington romp, and from 11 o'clock until 4 in the some time during September.

their beautiful summer home, on the everything and fearing nothing.

The choir of the Eastern Presbyterian Church is having a vacation during the month of August, with the understanding that one member of the quartet will render a solo and lead the congregational singing each Sunday. Last Sunday morning Mr. John Waters, basso, was the soloist in charge, his selection for the offertory being "Just for Today." Miss Marie Hansen, soprano, will sing today, with Mrs. Marian D. Fosmire at the organ in place of Miss Nellie Sacrey, still more immaculate before he meets who is substituting for Mrs. Merrifield at the Presbyterian Church at Falls Church,

Mr. Arthur J. Mauvelle, who frequently entertained Washington music lovers during the past winter, has gone to New the conventional Mayme with her Jack. York to prepare for grand opera in a Hard work is their portion, but even they

A large audience was in attendance at the lecture recital given Friday night at N. J. Corey, musical lecturer. The feaprofusion of stereopticon views and vocal selections by Melba, Patti, Calve, Schurazzini, the solos being accomplished by heretofore. means of a talking machine.

Miss Roberta Amies has returned to the piano recital at the residence of the Rev. W. Ingles Morse of Kings Beach terrace, giving a Chopin program before an enthusiastic audience.

WASHINGTON'S PARKS AS SOCIAL CENTERS

TASHINGTON'S parks are the recreation grounds of its population. In the different parts of the city gather under the shady trees all of the ent, the widely diversified castes, ly and get within reasonable distance A new tenor has appeared upon the local and Mr. Fred Schaeffer, bass. Mr. Fulton of the drinking fountain. Otherwise you will find the daylight vigil laborious. throng that passes you. Hardly have the brilliant rays of the As you near the shady trees huge of the statue in the center of the park becken to you invitingly. You say to yourthan will come from the four corners of self: town the laborers-the hewers of wood "Ah, here is a sylvan spot, where and the drawers of water-wiping the last with my pipe, may seek to commune remnants of sleep from their reddeped with nature, and by communing learn to and tired eyes. They pass you with mind lead a better life." intent on the day's drudgery and scarcely notice you as they pass. The park lures move toward a bench, draw out your them only because they can gain some pipe, seat yourself and prepare to submit few seconds of time and save their energy to the entrancing thralldom of summer-few seconds of time and save their energy to the entrancing thralldom of summer-standing the fact that the legislature this is all I have about me in change, few seconds of time and save their energy to the Your mood does not last long. Standing the fact that the legislater this is all I have about me in change, for the task that means bread and butter to them. They straggle along talk- A voice, coming apparently from some purchase of the property, negotiations in low monotonous undertones about person of the male species, who is located purchase of the property, negotiations sovereigns and dropped them into my things of interest only to themselves and in your immediate vicinity, murmurs you feel depressed watching them.

But this is not for long. The Changing Views.

gradual brightening of day the atmosthe chattering school children, blithely idiotic monotony: unconscious of this tremendous proposi- "Is ooumsy mur tion, inscrutable and insoluble, called You rise and move, but there is no use bife. and behind them follow the sleek, in motion. You cannot escape it, for prosperous citizens of the community, lovers are legion.

Other posts bore their community, lovers are legion.

Other posts bore their community back door. Nobody the doctor, lawyer, merchant and chief, the doctor. lawyer, merchant and chief, each planning his day's work and seeking to evolve something from his well nour-ished brain more grantic the none of the baby. Lafayette is the none of the aged. Each park ment to Maryland's militia forces. As to for the world."

Other parks have their own distinctive creased from $60,000 to $70,000 by the last do not believe anybody ever will. I legislature, and from the federal allot-ment to Maryland's militia forces. As to for the world." than anything he has ever before at- is the selected spot for some particular the federal allotment, it is specified that The plane player beat out the opening tempted. The scene changes.

Tucked in their tiny go-carts, the babies caterer to the public who wants to be well available.

afternoon the grassed plot resembles some untrodden paradise as yet unsul-Mr. and Mrs. George O'Connor are the lied by the hand of man, whose innocence guests of Mr. McGee and his mother at and youth go hand in hand, believing in By 4 o'clock the procession of the morning, reversed in its order of march, passes through the park. The lawyers, doctors, merchants and chiefs leading, and the weary plowman, still rubbing his tired eyes, bringing up the rear. So much for the day. The lapse between the return of the gatherings is not long. My lady must change her dress and prepare herself for her little stroll, and my lord must of #### my lady. Social Distinctions.

The grubs and the butterflies never mix. In the southeast parks you behold trips. to forget their trouble and toil.

held and have thus made the gatherings you will see the little butterfly of society, her bright wings shimmering glossily in city after spending her vacation at Lynn, the soft night lights. She leans on the Mass. Miss Amies was principal in a arm of the fashionably dressed young man beside her and promenades in the proper and approved fashion. The poorer class do not mingle with the is a bar isolating them as high and strong as the Chinese wall. In the fashionable park the grub hangs bashfully on the outside of the motley assemblage, eagerly drinking in the sweet strains as they pulsate throughout the night.

to encroach upon their rights. The grow- cerned for explanatory statements. ing multicolored flowers, the shrubs, the grave old trees, the statues and the little concreted walks are as dear to the heart of the man who lives near them as the grand buildings, the military, the flag or

Mecca of the Lovelorn.

yourse'f.

Filled with this beautiful sentiment you

"Is ooumsy mumsy?" mushy one and explain that he should The sun rises, the dew slowly dries on not ask such personal questions, when the shimmering foliage, and with the you happen to notice he is not talking to you. He is seated on a bench about six phere of the park changes. Now comes seated close to him, is murmuring with given out, it seems to be understood that "Is ooumsy mumsy?"

order of citizens.

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

IDSUMMER is having its effect on the National Guard of the District of Columbia In the the District of Columbial In 217 acres is because it was not desired accordance with custom the that persons should take up lots contigcitizen soldiery is enjoying a wous to the range property, as there is rest. The period devoted to drills, meetings and schools, with the annual outing be made a state encampment ground for at Fort Washington and Fort Hunt as the militia. workers and the beginning of the social the climax, extended from the 1st of last October until the 15th instant. Arms and equipment having been cleaned and prop- railroad, who is quartermaster general on needs see that his immaculate person is erly stored, following the tour of duty in the adjutant general's staff, have gone to the field, the guardsmen are excused from Camp Perry. Ohio, where they will witmilitary duties until the first drill night ness the national team match. in October next. Many of the officers and men are away from the city on vacation Son of a Belted Earl

Interest is centered, naturally, on the rifle matches in progress at Camp Perry, Ohio, and especially on the results athave a short respite and go to the park tained by the District's brigade rifle team. The local experts have been sort The band concerts have done much to of jogging along at Camp Perry, partici-

the Washington Grove Chautauqua by obviate the class distinction prevalent in pating in the competitions under the the parks. Since the martial strains of auspices of the National Rifle Association ture of Mr. Corey's lectures is that he music have resounded from all parts of of America, with little hope of winning illustrates his talks on grand opera by a the city the crowds have flocked to the prizes, shooting principally for practice in parks at which the concerts are being preparation for the National match, which is to begin tomorrow morning. The mann-Heink, Caruso, Tamango and Tet- more heterogeneous and variegated than supreme effort is to be made by Maj. razzini the solos being accomplished by heretofore. Go to a band concert of an evening and leaders in the field of fifty competitors.

> The only members of the bragade now in this city who are really at work are silver, and it now transpires that one, those striving for places on the company at least, is the son of a belted earl and teams that will be sent to Sea Girt, N. J., the other a gentleman by birth. One of butterflies even at the same park. There to compete in the matches there early in the couple-the scion of the earl-has a rumors of charges by him of misconduct The residents of Washington are in-tensely proud of their parks, and woe be-tide the individual who brashly endeavors militia has called on all the parties con-

Now that rifle practice occupies the center of the stage, so to speak, a statement according to the peer's son, such is When you have grown tired of your own little set, when the utter weariness different appeal to the users, based prin if anything else.

Each park throughout the city makes a different appeal to the users, based prin property at Glenburnie, now used as the property at Glenburnie, no from Annapolis that although a bill pro- the case. state rifle range, was defeated at the last ty well satisfied so far, and intend to session of the Maryland legislature, other stick to it as long as we can maintain Lincoln Park is essentially the mecca methods have been employed by state of about $300, and are doing even better this week. One evening at Earl's Court I colcoln Park on an evening-no, on second together with the surrounding property. lected $55 in less than half an hour. thought, don't wander through Lincoln has practically been consummated; is re- That's not so bad, is it? Go early in the morning and watch the Park unless you are young and in love garded as of interest. Ever since the state first leased the ground, more than five August sun lighted up the somber bronze masses of shadow in the summer dusk years ago, it has been the earnest desire that it would be under state ownership. are 125 acres in extent and were first and many of them think nothing of leased by the state for five years, in 1903.

Under the provisions of the lease the state at its expiration was given the privilege of days ago I approached a gentleman of purchasing the property for $9,250, a re- who was just leaving his house. newal for another five years, and at the expiration of the second lease the owners were opened almost at once for the purchase of the original tract and 217 acres of additional surrounding property, most You are about to remonstrate with this of which is woodland. It is expected that through about twenty songs. Then we the transfer to the state will soon be adopt very elaborate means of throwing the amount to be paid for the whole prop-erty will be about $12,000. It is said that have reason to believe we are being fol-of buildings and other work, and since the that lined the street.

some danger from bullets. Another idea is that the whole property could eventually

Adjt. Gen. Henry M. Warfield and

A London Street Singer

Special Correspondence of The Star. LONDON, August 12, 1908. HAT some peers' sons can eke out more than a bare living by their talents when put to it has been demonstrated during the past week in this city. Two street musicians, dressed in immaculate evening dress, wearing across their clean-shaven faces black domino masks and attended by a servant in scarlet livery, have been making their progress through the West End of London, their pathway strewn with gold and well trained tenor voice and sings to the consist of pulling the piano through the streets between the songs. When the identity of the two singers was first established by a well known Regent street solicitor, who, by the way, refuses to pass on to the curious world the full extent of his knowledge, it was thought that the two men were engaged in their strange vocation as a lark, but, accompaniment of a piano played by his

Paid in Silver and Gold.

"The majority of those who give us anything, recognizing that we are not The grounds now used as the rifle range! ordinary street performers, give us silver, throwing us a half sovereign. A couple

"'I suppose you are doing this for sport,' he remarked as he paused on the step of his motor car. 'I am sorry to say collection bag. "I sing for two hours every evening and during that time I manage to get curious people off the scent. The piano is taken by our footman and dragged some distance, when it is handed over to about one-third of the fund shall be used bars of the latest music hall success and And the park remains the universa! for rifle and target work, so that this is the peer's son cleared his voice for the Miss Blanche Yewell. secretary and treasurer of the Rubinstein Choral Club. The state during the first five years of the sum and the statue of some grim old warrior. The from a visit to Col. and Mrs. Heft, at Tucked in their tiny go-carts, the babies caterer to the public who wants to be amused and escape from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from pours of the sun and the torridity and oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down its occupancy spent more than $10,000 on the hands of fair listeners who crowded oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down its occupancy spent more than $10,000 on the hands of fair listeners who crowded oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the state during the first five years of the hands of fair listeners who crowded oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the state during the first five years of the sun and the torridity and oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the state during the first five years of the sun and the torridity and oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the pours of the sun and the torridity and oppressiveness of the heat fumes from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring down in the midst of a shower of coins from the glaring dow